

After beginning to broadcast its first season on PBS and Public TV stations in May 2012, Pedal America will start airing on the Create TV network, the digital public television network distributed by American Public Television (APT). At least 217 PBS stations carry the Create® network including seven of PBS's top 10, and 36 of its top 50, markets.

"We are very excited about joining this highly regarded schedule of public television programing," Says Pedal America's Executive Producer Ira David Levy. "This will help us and the show's sponsors to reach and connect with a lot more viewers."

The Create TV network will broadcast Pedal America episodes on Wednesdays and Sundays at 9:30 a.m. (EST) beginning on August 15 and repeat episodes on Wednesdays at 3:30 p.m. EST. Pedal America's first season consists of seven episodes in Chicago; Raystown Lake, PA; Austin, TX; Sedona, AZ; Napa Valley, CA; Savannah, GA; and Tampa, FL.

Check your local public television station's Create TV network.