

A huge "thank you" to those who wrote in this week asking if Pedal America had been canceled. I'm thrilled to report that the series is alive and well!

June is typically "pledge drive" month for many PBS and Public TV stations. During this time, many stations interrupt regular programming. Check local listings each week and soon enough you will see Pedal America back in the schedule, picked up from where it left off – you won't miss a single episode.

In fact, we have 86% of Public TV's total household reach, including PBS Create. Tonight, Friday, we begin to broadcast on WNYE-TV, Ch 25, at 8:30 p.m. and on Saturday at 11:30 a.m.

As a treat, here are a few behind-the-scenes pics from Season One. Enjoy!

--Ira David

The crew prepares our production bike for shooting along the Pinellas County Trail in St. Petersburg.

In Mesa, Arizona, our Director of Photography sets up a scene wearing our team mascot watermelon helmet.

In Sedona, our videographer, Andrew Friend, expresses to our newest intern that it's not appropriate to